Técnico Corporation Sells its Mayport, Florida Operations to Earl Industries

Técnico Corporation, Inc. (Técnico) and Earl Industries, LLC (Earl) have executed an agreement resulting in the acquisition, by Earl, of Técnico's Mayport, FL operations (Técnico Mayport, LLC).

This arrangement allows Técnico to sharpen its focus on the US Navy and commercial ship repair markets in Norfolk, VA; San Diego, CA, and Mobile, AL.

The agreement provides opportunities for eligible Técnico Mayport employees to become employees of Earl Industries.

Técnico Corporation, Inc. is a full service marine and industrial contractor providing ship alteration, habitability modernization, modular ship construction, turn-key ship repair and maintenance services. Técnico owns and operates facilities in four geographically dispersed locations including: Chesapeake, VA, San Diego, CA, Panama City, FL, and Chickasaw, AL. Técnico is a subsidiary of American Maritime Holdings (AMH) located in Norfolk, Virginia. AMH is one of the largest employee-owned Marine and Industrial companies in the United States.
